

Wednesday, June 3, 2009
For Immediate Release
Contact: Vandegriff & Associates, 317.575.8835

ATTORNEY NAMED TO FOUNDATION BOARD

Tabbert Hahn Earnest & Weddle, LLP partner Gregory F. Hahn has been appointed to The Athenæum Foundation Board of Trustees.

Hahn's practice is concentrated in the areas of corporate, insurance, real estate, and gaming law as well as business litigation. In addition he provides state and federal lobbying with special emphasis on corporations and individuals.

Hahn currently serves on the Starfish Initiative board and previous has served on the boards of the Indiana Sports Corporation and the Indianapolis Private Industry Council. He is a member of the Indianapolis, Indiana State and American Bar Associations as well as the Indiana and American Trial Lawyers Associations and American Association of Gaming Lawyers and the International Masters of Gaming Law.

He has been named a SuperLawyer since 2005 and was inducted into the Litigation Counsel of America in 2007.

The Athenæum Foundation is a not-for-profit organization, formed in 1991, dedicated to restoring this architectural treasure as well as strengthening the Athenaeum as a vibrant community gathering center.

Tabbert Hahn Earnest & Weddle, LLP counsels individuals and businesses on local, regional and national levels.