

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ASSOCIATE ATTORNEY SELECTED FOR BAR LEADERSHIP SERIES

Tabbert Hahn Earnest & Weddle, LLP announces that associate attorney Kevin Quinn has been selected for the Indianapolis Bar Association's Bar Leader Series Class VIII.

Quinn, a 2003 graduate of Indiana University School of Law – Indianapolis, concentrates his practice in business, commercial, construction, and civil litigation. In 2009 and 2010, Quinn was named an Outstanding Young Lawyer - Rising Star by Indianapolis Monthly. Quinn is an active member of the Brebeuf Jesuit Preparatory School Alumni Board.

The IBA's Bar Leader Series is designed to further develop the leadership skills of participants. Each year, twenty-five lawyers in their third through tenth years of practice are selected to participate in the program. Participants are further divided into smaller groups, each of which is responsible for planning and executing a community service project.

Tabbert Hahn Earnest & Weddle, LLP counsels individuals and businesses on local, regional and national levels.
