

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Vandegriff & Associates, (317) 575-8835

FIRM NAMES ATTORNEY PARTNER

Tabbert Hahn Earnest & Weddle, LLP announces that attorney Chad Walker has been named a partner in the Indianapolis-based firm

Walker concentrates his practice in business transactions, commercial lending, real estate, not-for-profit, creditor and debtor rights, bankruptcy, and state and federal commercial litigation.

In 2009 and 2010, Walker was named an Outstanding Young Lawyer - Rising Star (business/corporate law) by Indianapolis Monthly.

A graduate of the Indiana University School of Law – Indianapolis, Walker participated in Moot Court, St. Thomas Moore Society and served as a Teen Court volunteer during law school. He received his undergraduate degree from the University of Evansville where he served as student government president, and was named the outstanding male student.

Walker maintains memberships with the American, Indiana State, and Indianapolis Bar Associations and serves as a member of Indiana Bar Association's Legal Ethics Committee. As part of his involvement in the legal community, he is a regular presenter at seminars offered by Business Ownership Initiatives of Indiana on topics such as MBE/WBE Certification; Business Entity Selection; and Contracts. He has also presented and authored materials for continuing legal education seminars on real estate transactions.

Currently, Walker is a volunteer with the United Way of Central Indiana and a graduate of the United Way of Central Indiana Ardath Burkhart Leadership Series. He serves on the boards of directors for several not-for-profits, such as Indiana Youth Group and the Fall Creek Place Homeowners Association.

Tabbert Hahn Earnest & Weddle, LLP counsels individuals and businesses on local, regional and national levels.